Alphabet Loto

Students learned French words and made their own picture bingo boards with their own choice of words and pictures. With these boards students played four games of loto, arranged by shape. Students switched boards and followed game directions in French.

